to be any such persons, or have been sent, or that are employed in any such persuading of Our people, or of any residing withm Our realm to treason, or to move any to relinquish their allegiance with Us, or to acknowledge any kind of obedience to the Pope or to the King of Spain , and also of all other persons that have been thereto induced, and that have thereto yielded And further to proceed m the execution of such their commission, as they shall be more particulaily directed by instiuctions annexed to their commission

* And furthermore, because it is known and pioved by common experience upon the apprehension of sundry of the said tiaitoious persons sent into the realm, that they do come into the same by secret creeks, and landing places, disguised both m names and persons, some in apparel as soldiers, manners, or merchants, pretending that they have heretofore been taken prisoners, and put into galleys, and delivered Some come m as gentlemen, with contrary names, in comely apparel, as though they had travelled into foreign countries for knowledge and generally all, for the most part, are clothed like gentlemen in apparel, and many as gallants , yea in all colours, and with feathers and such like, disguising themselves, and many of them in their behaviours as ruffians, far off to be thought or suspected to be friars, priests, Jesuits, or popish scholars

*And finally, We admonish and strictly charge and command all persons that have any intelligence with any such so sent, or come from beyond the seas to such purpose, to detect them to the commissioners, in that behalf to be assigned as aforesaid, within twenty days after the publication hereof, in the shire town, or city or port, within the precincts of the said commission upon pain that the offenders herein shall be punished as abettors and maintainers of traitors wherein We are resolutely determined to suffer no favour to be used for any respect of any persons, qualities or degrees nor shall allow nor suffer to be allowed any excuse of negligence for not detection, or for not due examination of the qualities of such dangerous persons, according to the order hereafter prescribed, being no wise contrary, but agreeable to the most ancient laws and good usages of Our realm, devised for the good order of all manner of subjects in every precinct of every leet, to be forthcoming, to answer for their behaviours
